"Where there is a sense of faith, hope and love, there is no cause for the devastation of sweeping emotions that lead to loss of health and mental balance." This was part of the message the Rev. John Robbins Hart, Jr., Ph. D., of Valley Forge, had for members of the Travel Club and their guests, Junior Travel Club members, last evening, as he endeavored to point out that one can grow old gracefully, and win the battle of life.

The message by the clergyman and psychologist, was given on the occasion of a reception tendered the Juniors by the senior club in the club home on Cedar street. Dr. Hart, who like other psychologists stressed jealousy as one of the most harmful emotions of mankind, said "Happy is the person who can react just himself or herself to see things in their proportionate order." In mentioning jealousy as a thing to be closely guarded against, he stated "I never knew of anything more subtle, and more difficult to deal with."

Mentioning the fields of science and religion, the clergyman said to the group of women: "I feel that the one is a constant interpretation of the other. . . . I was informed years ago that one of the greatest things in life is helping people to harmonize the truth of religion and the findings of science; and that has helped me." The speaker dwelt at length on the emotional side of the

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

"That Is The Way To Bet"

Washington, Nov. 16—It is impossible to deny that political precedents, the split state of the Democratic party and the strong turn toward the Republicans in the recent election make a Republican President in 1948 far more likely than at any time since 1928. The prospect this time is that the nomination will be practically equivalent to election, which, of course, means that the struggle in the Republican convention will be fiercer than for a generation past.

THUS, though it seems to most observers that the re-elected Governor Dewey is well in the lead—and some regard him as sure to be named—it is not surprising that advocates of other candidates should dispute this with great vigor. And it is quite certain that, if nominated, Mr. Dewey will have gone through a hard and bruising fight. There not only is not the slightest disposition to concede the prize to the gentleman from New York but there appears a determination to "gang up" on him.

Whether this can be done effectively so far as convention delegates are concerned depends upon developments of the next eighteen months, but at this moment the effort is to offset the arguments advanced in behalf of Mr. Dewey with arguments against. On the favor-

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

A serious challenge confronted Washington as John L. Lewis formally advised the Government that the coal agreement reached by him and Secretary of the Interior Krug on May 29 would expire at midnight Nov. 29. Secretary Krug insisted, in reply, that the United Mine Workers did not have the power to end the agreement by unilateral action. This impasse raised the possibility that the Government would proceed against Mr. Lewis and union members under the War Labor Disputes Act which bars strikes against Government-seized properties.

The Federal Reserve Board will drop Dec. 1 its wartime restrictions on consumer credit, except those on installment buying of twelve major categories of durable goods, including automobiles, that are still scarce.

No Arrests Made Yet In Jewelry Store Robbery

CROYDON, Nov. 16—Pennsylvania State Police of Langhorne barracks report today they have had a number of people under surveillance in connection with the robbery on November 1st of the jewelry store of George Lukens, Cedar avenue. However, no arrests have been made, but police are checking with police departments of various municipalities in case attempts are made to pawn or sell the watches.

Officer Dain, the investigator, reports that the seven new watches stolen from the window of the Lukens store are valued at approximately $250. The men's and women's watches were snatched from the window after the thief had smashed a plate glass window with a sledge hammer. The hammer was left at the spot, and in his haste to get away the thief dropped another watch on the ground in front of the window. Nothing else was disturbed. It is stated.

HOSPITALIZED

Mrs. Ryan Louder, Jefferson avenue, is under observation in Harriman Hospital.

G. O. P. AND TAXES

Will the Republicans cut taxes?

The answer is yes. They have no choice. They are committed individually and as a party to 20 per cent reduction.

Will they balance the national budget?

Yes, for the same reasons.

If either of these promises were broken, the party would suffer a black eye from which it might not recover for years.

The various discussions being held at Washington and elsewhere, regarding methods and strategy, are being represented in some channels as being a dog-fight between the Republicans who believe in the program and others who don't.

This is unfair and inaccurate. The task is a tremendous one. It involves the overhauling of the entire structure of the Federal government, and goes deep into the tangled subject of foreign policy. It is not something to be undertaken without plans and consultation.

No criticism of the Truman Administration has been more fundamental and persistent than the Republican charge that the top-heavy national spending was forcing the nation towards bankruptcy and inflation; and that taxes were too high for satisfactory industrial expansion.

Innumerable outstanding Republicans, from Congressman Knutson of Minnesota to Pennsylvania's own Senator-elect Martin, have agreed on the 20 per cent figure as the proper amount by which taxes should be cut.

The 20 per cent figure is interesting because it can be used to determine the level at which the budget itself

Morrisville School District Sued for $1,329.04 In Court

IMPROPER ASSESSMENT

DOYLESTOWN, Nov. 16—The Morrisville School District has been named defendant in a law suit brought by the United Sand and Gravel Company of Morrisville, in the Court of Common Pleas of Bucks County, to recover a claim of $1,329.04.

The assessments were reduced in an opinion handed down in court by Judge Hiram H. Keller in September, 1944, and the changes follow: In 1940, $937.94 paid, should have been $584.60; 1941, $948.67 paid, should have been $627; 1942, $919.44 paid, should have been $607.10; and 1943, $936.91 paid, should have been $622.29. The plaintiff is claiming the amount of $1,329.04, with interest from December 1, 1944.

Clark J. Kelly, Parkland, has been named defendant in a damage suit brought by Henry Palmer Company of Langhorne, in the sum of $1215.94, with interest from June 1, 1945. The action involves the sale of building materials.

LATEST NEWS BULLETINS

Predict Bloody Election in Romania

Bucharest—A high-ranking Romanian statesman predicted today next Tuesday's national elections in this country will be a bloody affair, Minister of the Interior Theodor Georgescu said.

"All elections in Romania have been bloody and Tuesday's will be no exception."

"We shall endeavor to prevent violence, but some heads will be broken all the same, for you cannot change the mentality of a country within 18 months."

Georgescu predicted a close contest. He said orders have been issued that no opposition candidate is to be arrested, even if found to be carrying firearms without a permit.

The Minister said that opposition leaders have exploited post-war difficulties, enhancing their chances, but nevertheless expressed conviction the government bloc would obtain a majority.

Attlee to Ask Vote of Confidence

London—Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee was reported today to be prepared to ask for a vote of confidence following debate on the amendment of 57 "rebel" Laborites criticizing the Government's foreign policy.

Informed political circles said that after the amendment is moved Monday Attlee will wind up the debate himself instead of leaving it to Minister of State Hector McNair.

Then, they said, he will ask for a vote of confidence so that Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, now attending meetings of the Big Four in New York, will know his position in relation to Commons. The amendment is expected to receive only small minority support.

The dissident Laborites charge Bevin with favoring the United States against Russia and insist on a neutral policy to avoid what they say will otherwise be "an inevitable conflict between American capitalism and Soviet Communism."

NO ENEMIES NEED APPLY

In repeating its opposition to the establishment of a $400,000,000 food fund (it isn't hard to guess which nation would provide the $400,000,000) to be distributed under United Nations auspices, the State Department will have now, as it had in the beginning, the support of the great majority of the American people. And if it attempted to follow a different course, the new Congress would not vote the money.

Certainly there is little in this country's extended experience with UNRRA under Lehman and La Guardia to warrant the belief that a continuation of that program or anything remotely resembling it is the best way to solve the food programs which still confront a number of countries throughout the world.

The United States, today as always, is a sucker for peoples in trouble and it is quite as ready as ever it was to give abundantly of its resources to prevent suffering and starvation. But during the past year it discovered to its latter sorrow that indiscriminate generosity, as practiced by UNRRA, is not only a wasteful procedure but in several conspicuous instances has subjected this country to the utterly unfair charge that it is seeking to dominate the internal affairs of other nations.

That some European states are warmly grateful to America for the aid they have received is, of course, open to no question. But there are several governments, all of them members of the so-called Russian bloc, which have given nothing but criticism in return for contributions. To continue to tax Americans to send them food would be to play the part of the worst type of simpleton.

The policy of the State Department, as now enunciated, is to be selective in the allocation of both money and food. Each case will be considered on its individual merits and weight will be given not only to actual need but to the official attitude toward the United States which is taken by the proposed beneficiary. And then the State Department will have a formidable selling job to get Congress to approve the contribution, however worthy the alms seeker.

It simply isn't sense, good or otherwise, for the United States to give away money at the same time it is paying interest on a $262,000,000,000 debt.

Having been refused a job in England, the "Dook" of Windsor, now in the U. S., says he doesn't know what he will do. But it is doubtful whether he will attempt to join the 52-20 club.

needs to be balanced, and therefore the approximate ceiling which the Republicans will place upon appropriations.

After several guesses, the Truman Administration has estimated current tax revenues at $39 billions. A 20 per cent cut down the line would bring the figure to $31.2 billions. However, the present year is admittedly an abnormally high one in taxable earnings. Normal returns from existing taxes probably would be around $35 billions, which, less 20 per cent, would leave the sum of $28 billions.

That then is the level at which the budget would need to be balanced. Government spending would have to be brought inside it—enough inside to allow a surplus for debt-retirement.

Assuming that $3 billions would be set aside annually for paying off the debt, the amount actually left for current costs would be $25 billions. This compares with the $41 billions or more which President Truman has insisted is necessary.

The reductions therefore would be more than three-eighths—about 40 per cent. This is a heavy cut. Whether one thinks it too severe depends on whether one listens to the Democrats or the Republicans. Heavy or not, it is approximately what the Republicans are up against—and their whole political future depends upon mastering the job without weakening the work of the government.

Yet the final figure of $25 billions is low only by comparison with the current New Deal spending spree. It is higher than many leading Democrats said previously was needed. For example, Secretary Byrnes, who happens to be next in line for the Democratic Presidency and certainly is a wheelhorse of the Administration, in his report in January, 1945, estimated the post-war budget at between $20 and $25 billions.

President Roosevelt's biggest pre-war budget was about $10 billions, and it included heavy debt-carrying charges as well as vast military expenditures. As for military needs, that budget was drawn with the obvious and avowed purpose of readying the nation for approaching war.

"Normal" American budgets, under years of Republican rule, ran around $4 billions. President Roosevelt was first elected campaigning on the charge that these were too high—he promised to reduce them 25 per cent!

In the matter of specific appropriations, the bald fact is that Congress is going to have to find out more than it now knows about how the money is being spent, and what there is to show for it, before it can make final plans.

For instance, there is no one who knows how much of the vast military appropriations are being used for blatantly political purposes, for secret "stock-piling" at the expense of the consumers, for hidden subsidies.

One item is going to be "easy"—that is the excess Federal payroll. It is estimated that upwards of $5 billion a year is being spent for public employees not really needed. Since the bulk of these are hand-picked New Dealers, the Republicans have little political incentive to protect the jobs. The Democratic high command will scream with anguish when the squeeze is made—but it has to be made, just the same.

There is no real room for doubt that similar "water" exists in a great many other Federal expenditures.

The job for the Republicans is to find it, and squeeze it out.

Long-standing commitments give them no choice in forcing this assignment.

The United States mission to Albania left in two destroyers after its previously announced inability to reach an agreement with the Albanian Government.

In northern Greece the battle around the village of Skra, just south of the Yugoslav border, continued for the fourth day. Greek Third Army headquarters said two tank-supported brigades were being rushed to the battle area.

The Chinese National Assembly, boycotted by the Communists, convened in Nanking to face the problem of adopting a permanent constitution for China. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek addressed the gathering, which adjourned for the week-end after having met only an hour.

able side are these—(1) that his success in carrying New York a second time for governor by a majority—675,000—greater than ever given any other Republican, makes him the logical choice; (2) that his recognized competency as administrator of the greatest State presently qualifies him to run the greatest need is for competent administration; (3) that the national polls all show him to be first choice of the Republican rank and file.

ON the other side, it is asserted that the 675,000 Dewey majority loses significance when contrasted with the showing of other Republicans in other states. For example, considering the size of the vote, Governor Martin of Pennsylvania won a greater victory with his 600,000 majority over Senator Guffy. Also, it is said that Governor Warren's re-election in California with the endorsement of both parties was a greater personal tribute than the Dewey re-election.

Comparison with other outstanding Republicans, such as Senators-elect Henry Cabot Lodge in Massachusetts and Raymond Baldwin in Connecticut, are also made. Finally, it is asserted that while the Republican party as a whole increased its vote seven per cent in the nation the Dewey increase was only three per cent.

GRANTING Governor Dewey's competence, the reply is that his record is no better than that of Senators Taft and Vandenberg, ex-Governor Stassen and Governor Warren, all of whom are—or have been—public officials of real distinction. As for the Dewey popularity among the rank and file, that it is held, is offset by the lack of real warmth in his personality plus his unpopularity with the key politicians in the party. It is these rather than those who vote in the polls who select delegates, control conventions and make nominations. The point that the Republicans have never renominated a defeated presidential candidate is also made, though not many take stock in that, it being perfectly clear that in the past the reason the defeated candidates were not renominated was because they were not politically available and not because they had been defeated.

IN other words, while it is agreed that Governor Dewey's triumph was the most spectacular in the country, that he will have more convention delegates to start with and that he defeated a most formidable opposition, including the American Labor party, the Liberal party, the Democratic party, the CIO and the Communists, it is argued that there are various ways in which his nomination can be prevented in a year when any one of the aspirants can win—or so they think. There are the further adverse facts that Governor Dewey will not by any means have a majority on the first convention ballot and that the Republican National Committee chairman, Mr. Carroll Reese, is supposed to be pro-Taft.

IN addition it is possible (though not probable) that Governor Dewey may make some damaging pre-convention mistakes. At any rate, the only concession his opposition makes now is that, while he will not be nominated himself, he can name the nominee. All this and more in the way of Dewey disparagement is emanating from the anti-Dewey camps and will be echoed by the radical groups which he has so thoroughly beaten. Under the circumstances, it is natural. The value of the prize this time is so great that the idea of conceding it to the leader eighteen months in advance cannot be tolerated. Mr. Dewey intimates are fully aware of this, realize that there is a battle ahead, but their confidence is not lessened. As the outstanding aspirant, they say, the Governor is bound to be the shunting target for the others, whose first concern must be to head him off. Nevertheless, they think his position fairly impregnable and meet the opposition forecasts with the old sporting proverb which says: "The race may not be to the swift nor the battle to the strong. But that is the way to bet."

Winter Weather's on the Way!

Here Are Oldsmobile's Recommended

COLD WEATHER SERVICES

CHECK COOLING SYSTEM—
The radiator and entire cooling system should be drained, flushed out, and thoroughly inspected. Hose connections should be tightened where necessary.

INSTALL ANTI-FREEZE—Sufficient anti-freeze should be put in to protect your car from a damaging freeze in even the coldest weather that can be expected.

TUNE ENGINE—Your motor should be put in shape to assure you of quick, easy starting, and economical performance no matter how low the thermometer goes.

CHANGE ENGINE OIL—
A lighter oil that will circulate freely at below-freezing temperatures is a necessity for easy starting and the prevention of excessive winter wear.

LUBRICATE CAR—The
entire chassis should be scientifically lubricated to prevent wear. The lubricants in standard transmission and differential should be changed to a winter grade. Hydra-Matic Drive fluid need not be changed unless necessary.

CHECK ELECTRICAL SYSTEM—There's a heavier load on battery, generator, starter and ignition system during cold weather. These should be inspected, put in good condition, and protected with a coating of P.B.

CHECK SAFETY FEATURES—Brakes should be adjusted
and put in top-notch condition.
Windshield wipers should be checked. Heater and defroster connections should be inspected.

PROTECT FINISH—Snow
and ice and road-clearing chemicals are tough on the finish of your car. A wash and polish, or a Liquid Glaze job—and touch-up treatment—will protect both paint and chrome.

If You Have a New Oldsmobile on the Way—

Materials shortages and unavoidable production delays are keeping our deliveries behind schedule. Better keep your present car up with regular service ... until that style-leading new Oldsmobile arrives!

FALLS DEFEATS NEWTOWN; WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

"Little Three" Honors Go
With Victory Over
Newtown

FINAL SCORE IS 25 TO 12

Game Was Rough and Near Riot Occurred in The Fourth Quarter

NEWTOWN, Nov. 16.—Falls Township won the "Little Three" championship of Lower Bucks County yesterday afternoon beating the Newtown High eleven, 25-12, in a roughly-played contest with a near-riot in the fourth quarter.

The game had gone into about mid-way in the final period when two players began to swing at one another and before they could be separated fans of both teams had swarmed on the field and were exchanging blows but the excitement didn't last long and the field was cleared for continuance of the football game.

George Taylor scored the entire four touchdowns for the winners and along with his brother "Bottles" Taylor was the star of the tilt. Before the tilt, the Falls boys elected "Bottles" honorary captain of the year and he showed his appreciation by gaining 88 yards from scrimmage during the afternoon. However, George netted 129 yards giving the Taylor brothers a total of 208 yards.

Fallsington had 16 first downs in the contest, two of these being from forward passes. Newtown had six first downs. The winners gained 70 yards via the air.

The first Fallsington touchdown was the climax of a 56-yard drive with the Taylor brothers alternating in carrying the ball. George went over from the 2-yard line and Bob Jones converted the extra point via a line plunge.

The 7-0 lead did not last long as Newtown received the kickoff on its twenty. On the first play, Torbett and Morris worked the "Statue of Liberty" play and Morris ran 80 yards to score the touchdown, catching the entire Falls team flat-footed.

The Falcons increased its lead with another touchdown in the second quarter. An intercepted pass on the 21-yard line paved the way for this score with G. Taylor going over from the four-yard line.

A recovered fumble by Gene Lynch on the Newtown 35 started the Millermen to their third touchdown. Line plays carried it to the 2 where Taylor smacked into the Newtown forward wall for the six-point.

But the Newtown team wasn't finished. The boys of Coach "Sage" Sagolla started a march on their own 39 and with reverses and end runs carried the pigskin to the Falls
18. From here, Bob Morris again reversed around the Fallsington end and scored his second touchdown.

Early in the final session, the Falcons made victory certain by tallying on five plays. A long forward pass, good for 51 yards, Bob Jones to "Charlie" Brown, set up this touchdown with Taylor again scoring on three line backs from the 5-yard line.

In addition to Newtown and Fallsington, Southampton is also a member of the "Little Three."

In chalking up its fourth straight win, the Fallsington team closed its season and four seniors were outstanding in the playing. They were: Cliff Peterson, Freddie Hibbs
and the Taylor brothers.

Played Outstanding Game

JOE FRANCE

In the recent traditional battle between Burlington and Bristol High Schools for the "little brown jug", Joe France broke into Bristol's starting line-up. He rewarded Coach McClister's confidence in him by playing an outstanding game.

Previously France had been a dependable replacement at end and made the most of every opportunity he had to play.

In last Saturday's game France gained the most ground in Bristol's aerial offensive and set up many large gains by catching passes and lateraling to teammates.

Defensively France has been doing an excellent job with his low effective tackling. Judging from his past performance, he has earned a starting berth at end for the remainder of the year.

TWO UNDEFEATED TEAMS TO CLASH AT MORRISVILLE

St. Ann's and Morrisville Alumni Elevens To Play Tomorrow

IS SECOND MEETING

St. Ann's Determined To Win Over Treir
Rivals

The two undefeated semi-pro teams of Lower Bucks County will clash tomorrow afternoon on the Morrisville High School field where St. Ann's A. A., winners of the western division of the Northeast
Conference, meets the Morrisville
Alumni eleven.

This is the second meeting of the two clubs. Earlier in the season, the gridiron teams played to a 6-6 deadlock in a night game on the Bristol high school field. It rained all during this tilt, handicapping both teams. The fans are hoping for a clear day tomorrow to see what the teams can do when the turf isn't slippery.

The Alumni, coached by John Hoffman, formerly of Morrisville High, has not tasted a defeat since early in 1941. This year they have won five games being Flemington, Langhorne, Trenton Eagles, Rawn-hurst, and Lambertville. They were held to a deadlock by St. Ann's and and Jesse Vanzant, have been working their squad diligently for the Trenton contest and hope to make it victory number four.

Other backfield players include: Neeld, Stradling and Hoernle. Some of the linemen are: Conturso, Wallace, Young, Burns, Hutchison and Gavin.

In addition to Morrisville, St.
Ann's was also held to a scoreless deadlock by the Olney Vets. It has won seven games, beating Cheltenham, Chestnut Hill, Ambler, Trenton Eagles, Unruh, Holmesburg and Willow Grove. The Saints will most likely begin their league playoffs next Sunday.

Coach "Pete" Borneice is determined to beat the Bulldogs tomorrow and will have in his starting line-up: Mangiaracina, Sak, Proby, Rue, Gallatto, Mount, Denny, Baur-oth, Merritt, Chichiletti and Spencer. All of his players will see action as he is also looking forward to the playoff games, hoping to keep his squad from injuries.

THIRD WARD EAGLES TO PLAY TRENTON XI

Seeking their fourth straight win, the Third Ward Eagles will play the Broad Street Park aggregation, of Trenton, tomorrow afternoon, on Leedom's field. Opening kickoff is scheduled for 2:30 p. m.

The Eagles have beaten Bensalem, Torresdale, and Tacony Panthers in succession. Earlier in the season they lost a night game to the Bor-downtown Manual Training School for their only loss.

The Third Ward coaches, Joe Roe
